Re-election as President of the Football Kenya Federation

Dear President, Dear Nick

Please accept my warmest greetings and sincerest congratulations on your re-election as President of the Football Kenya Federation (FKF) for the 2020-24 period, at the FKF Special Elective General Meeting, held on Saturday 17 October 2020.

I would also be grateful if you could please convey my felicitations to the members of the National Executive Committee elected and re-elected with you in Nairobi.

I finally seize the opportunity to thank you for all your efforts, your work and your important contribution to the development of our sport and the promotion of its values in your country and your region.

Sending you and your team my best wishes for this new mandate and every success for all the challenges that lie ahead, I look forward, dear President, to continuing to work with you for the growth and prosperity of football in Kenya in the years to come.

Yours in football,
